GOODS SIDINGS SITUATED NEAR AND BETWEEN STATIONS, AND HOW WORKED.

BILLUP'S SIDING, on UP LINE, midway between SOMERSHAM & CHATTERIS.

Trucks for this Siding are to be worked to Chatteris and thence to the Siding by such Up Goods Trains as call there. Trucks from the Siding are to be worked by the same Goods Trains.

The Signalman in charge is responsible for placing the Home and Distant Signals at "Danger" whenever the Up Line is obstructed, and for so maintaining them until the Line is Clear according to the Regulations.

Trucks standing in the Siding are to be properly secured by Chain and Padlock, as well as by the Scotch; and the Points of the Turn-out Siding are to be kept locked—shut to the Main Line—at all times, except when required to be opened to let Trucks into or out of the Siding.

GUYHIRNE SIDING.

Down Trains only stop at this Siding.

EVEDON SIDING ON THE UP SIDE OF THE RAILWAY, ABOUT MIDWAY BETWEEN SLEAFORD NORTH JUNCTION AND RUSKINGTON.

The Lever working the Points leading from the above Siding to the Up Main Line has been fitted with "Annett's" Patent Lock, the Key of which also locks the Up Advance Starting Signal at Ruskington.

The Key, when not in use, is to be kept in the Socket provided for it in the Ruskington Station Signal Box.

Whenever it is necessary to use this Siding the man appointed to work it must first lock the Up Advance Starting Signal at Ruskington, and proceed with the Key to the Siding and place the Up Home and Distant Signals to Danger and then unlock the Siding Points. After the work is completed and the Train has left, he must relock the Points and lower the Home and Distant Signals, and return at once to Ruskington with the Key. The Signalman at Ruskington must maintain all his Up Signals at Danger during the absence of the Key from his Box, unless he requires to lower the Home Signal to allow a Train into the Station according to the Regulations. No Engine or Train must be allowed to leave Ruskington on the Up Line of Rails until the Key has been brought back to Ruskington and "Line Clear" has been received from the Signal Station in advance.

ROWLAND'S SIDING.

This Siding is connected with the Down Line only. Certain Trains only will stop. No Train must stop after dark, or in foggy weather. The Keys are kept by the ferryman, who will work the Signals.

SKELLINGTHORPE SIDING.

This Siding is connected with the Up Line only. The Keys of the fixed Scotch and Points are kept by the gateman who will work the Signals. No Train must stop after dusk.

BURTON SIDING.

Wagons to or from this Siding are to be worked by the first Up Morning Train, under the personal superintendence of the Station Master at Lea. All Wagons for this Siding must be worked to Lea Station. No Train to stop after dark, or in foggy weather.

SIR CHARLES ANDERSON'S SIDING.

Wagons to or from this Siding must be worked by first Down Pick-up Goods, under the personal superintendence of the Station Master at Lea. All Wagons for this Siding must be worked to Lea Station. No Train to stop after dark, or in foggy weather.

MISTERTON LOW LEVEL SIDING.

Not more than ten Loaded Wagons and a Break Van must be moved either into or out of this Siding at one time. When the Wagons are being put into the Siding with the Engine behind them, a Break Van must be in front, but when Wagons are being taken out of the Siding the Break Van must be in the rear. A Guard must always ride in the Break Van.

SENIOR'S SAND SIDING, SOUTH OF BALBY BRIDGE, DONCASTER.

No Engine must enter this Siding after dark or in foggy weather.

Guards of Goods and Coal Trains timed to call at Gainsborough must examine and grease their Trains there.

DRIVERS STARTING FROM STATIONS.

Drivers of Trains other than Passenger Trains must exchange hand signals, when starting from stations, with the guard in the rear, so as to be sure that they have the whole of their Train with them. A short whistle will gain the attention of the guards for the purpose.

TRAINS BROUGHT TO A STAND AT HOME SIGNALS.

When a Train has been brought to a stand at a home signal, the driver, if he is not satisfied that the signalman is aware of the fact, must sound his whistle, and if after that the Train is kept waiting, the guard must communicate with the signalman to ascertain the cause of the detention, and to remind him of the position of the Train.
